

Social and Personal.

THE Richmond people who are remaining in town are finding their stay here by no means dull; indeed the summer months are excellent opportunity for the making of early fall plans and arranging for the busy season which always comes with autumn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hickey have returned from a pleasant stay abroad, and are now at the Chesterfield. They will occupy next winter Mr. Hickey's present apartment in the Chesterfield.

The Stay-at-Home Whist Club, which meets as regularly throughout the entire summer season as in the winter, was entertained in Mr. Tyler's home, 615 West Main street, Monday night, when two tables were engaged in an enjoyable game.

Mrs. Bland Smith and her partner made top score.

Mrs. M. E. Harvie will be hostess at the next meeting of the club on Monday next at 1005 Park avenue.

In Masquerade.

In a fancy dress ball given at the Yellow Sulphur Springs, led by Miss Louise Paxton, as a "Cyanamium," dancing with Stockton Heath, Jr., the Richmond girls who are there for the season were particularly picturesque and unique in masquerade.

Miss Rosalie Milnes was very handsome as "The Goddess of Liberty," and her sister, Miss Marie, made a dainty "Fleur de lis."

Miss Maude Starke was a real "Daisy," and Miss Sara Starke wore a most attractive "Poppy" costume.

Fancy dress parties always appeal to the younger set, and they are quite a feature of entertainment during the summer, affording much keen pleasure and genuine amusement to both participants and on-lookers. Pendleton Turner, of Richmond, and the University of Virginia, who distinguished himself last winter in society here by his Spanish dance in scarlet costume with tambourine, gave this special "stunt" in the last fancy dress ball at the White Sulphur, dancing with Miss Willis Wilson, both in full Spanish costume.

Miss Wilson, who is a beautiful girl, is well remembered in Richmond, having been here during last winter visiting Mrs. Robert W. Withers, when she was Miss Louise McAdams, in her home on West Franklin street. Miss Parke Taylor, who is at the White Sulphur with her grandmother, Mrs. George Taylor, won heartily a prize in her original get-up as a Goop, and was given the men's first prize.

House Party at Radford.

Miss Linda Kolner, of Richmond, is a guest in a house party being given during the week by Miss Ingles in her home near Radford, Va.

Others who are enjoying Miss Ingles' hospitality are Miss Margaret Wade, of Charlottesville; Miss Frances Kolner, of Salem; Messrs. Dan Spindle and Moseley Wade.

Richmond People at Dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sutton, Miss Annie Laurie Haynes, Miss Lina Shields, Miss Ruby Chevening, the Misses Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Northam, Albert Alsop, Miss Margaret McKeegan, Spencer Henley, Miss Dallas Lee, George Morgan and Cecil Stevens were among the dancers recently at a hop given at the Chamberlin Hotel.

Mr. Stevens, with his brother George, returned early in the week to his home in Richmond, where Mr. Stevens is recovering from a recent accident. The Misses Phinizy and their mother, Mrs. Phinizy, of Athens, Ga., who have been at Old Point for the past month, have now gone to the Greenbrier White Sulphur, as it is the custom of the Phinizys to spend the month of August there. The Phinizys are very popular in Virginia, and their coming is of much interest to the young society set at the White Sulphur, where their advent is always looked forward to as one of the pleasures of the summer season.

Miss Elyson, a Guest.

Miss Jane Elyson, of this city, who is visiting in Norfolk, Va., is a guest a few days ago when Mrs. T. B. Tredway entertained in honor of Misses Elsie and Kate Tredway, of Chatham, Va., who have now returned to their home. Misses Leonard and Emily Denby, Miss Ayers, Misses Mary Bransford and Anne Jones, Dr. Love, Messrs. Eugene Denby, John Reed, Patterson Jones, Mr. Davis, and the Messrs. Furr were other guests.

Tug Party.

A number of Richmond people enjoyed a tug party on last Saturday night, given by Mr. Toler and his wife, leaving Ocean View about 6 P. M. and returning from the Cape about 11, supper being served aboard the boat. Mr. and Mrs. Toler entertained about 200 guests, Richmond being represented by Miss Nannie Hall, J. B. Gerring, Mrs. A. M. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Ritter and family, Miss Louise Schmidt, Carrington Jones, Verma, and Mrs. J. M. Dulaney, of Lynchburg, have gone to Charlottesville to the Horse Show.

Miss Laura Kirk, who for the past three weeks has been the guest of Mrs. Hugh Roberts Parish at her home in Ardmore, near Philadelphia, left on Monday with a party on a yachting cruise. They will go to New York and from there to Newport to attend the yachting races and from there to Narragansett for the polo match.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Jacobs and Mrs. S. E. Ryan left on the noon train yesterday for a sojourn of several weeks at the White Sulphur Springs.

SACRAMENTO REPORTS A FINE CASE

A fine example of a recovery in a case of kidney disease that was supposed to be incurable is reported from Sacramento, Cal. The patient, Mr. J. C. Abbott, of 211 Ninth Street, Sacramento, was in October last in a local hospital in the capital city, swollen with the dropsy that often attends the serious and supposed incurable form. As is usual in these cases the hospital treatment got results, when he was advised to try Pulton's Renal Compound by a friend (Charles A. Newton, the yardmaster of the S. P. R. Co., at Sacramento, who had himself been cured by the treatment). Dropsy began to subside and the renal inflammation gradually abated and Abbott is now back to his employment with the S. P. R. Co., after recovering from a disease that is rated as incurable the world over.

In a letter he has just written, he states, "I believe it has saved my life. It is the greatest remedy for kidney disease on earth. No matter whether called 'kidney trouble,' 'Nephritis' or 'Bright's Disease,' the real difficulty is INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS. Pulton's Renal Compound is the first emollient for inflamed kidneys that the world has ever seen. Send for literature."

JOHN J. FUJITO CO., San Francisco, Cal. Owens & Minor, Drug, advised to try sole local agents. Ask for Bi-monthly Bulletin of late recoveries.

Attractive Radford Girl

Among Radford's fair daughters, Miss Jennie Reid, daughter of Mark Reid, commissioner of revenue for Radford, is one of the most attractive. Miss Reid, who is still a schoolgirl, graduated in English from Westminster School here in June, having also taken high honors in elocution and music.

Apartment from her gifts, Miss Reid's beauty of character and charm of manner combine in making her one of the most beloved and popular girls in the Southwestern portion of the State. Her home, Claymont, is the scene of many hospitable social affairs.

Conby—Johnson.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., August 3.—A marriage was celebrated to-day at Christ Episcopal Church, the rector, Rev. Harry Redinger Lee, officiating, which will be of much interest to their many friends throughout the South, the bride being Miss Lella Johnson, of Eufaula, Ala., who has been on a visit to Mrs. Edward Chambers Laird, and Vernon Cosby Badham, of South Carolina.

The marriage was solemnized at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, Edward Chambers Laird gave the bride away. The matron of honor were Mrs. Henry Lee Badham, of Birmingham, Ala., and Mrs. Laird. The groom was attended by Murray M. McGuire, of Richmond.

The bride, although claiming Alabama as her native State, is of distinguished Virginia ancestry, being descended from William Byrd, of "Westover"; William Chamberlain, of New Kent, and the Washingtons, and is a member of the Virginia Chapter of Colonial Dames. Her beauty, grace and charm endeared her to a large circle of friends, not only in her native State, but throughout the South.

The groom is a representative of one of the oldest families of North Carolina, prominent in that State since the early Colonial period. He also comes of distinguished Virginian, Cavalier and Huguenot ancestry. For many years he has lived in South Carolina, where he has large interests, and in that State they will make their home. They left immediately for New York, whence they sail for an extensive tour in Europe.

Barnes—Hall.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] ASHLAND, Va., August 3.—This evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Hall was the scene of a beautiful marriage, when their daughter, Miss Mary Moseley Hall, became the bride of Clyde A. Barnes. The bridal procession entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," which was rendered by Miss Margaret Tilley. Mr. Barnes, accompanied by his best man, Frank H. Cox, met the bride before an altar of ferns and palms.

The bride entered on the arm of her father and was preceded by her little nieces, Misses Mary and Martha McCue. She was attired in a lovely gown of white crepe de chine and lace, with white lace veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. The ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. R. A. Lapsley. The wedding was a quiet one, and was witnessed by only a few intimate friends of the couple.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mercer and Master Roger Mercer, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Tilley, Misses Margaret, Katherine, Ella and Laura Tilley, Miss Margaret Lee, Miss Elizabeth Cardozo, Edward Cardozo, Miller Leake, and Miss Willie Nolley.

Miss Hall is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hall, and is one of Ashland's most attractive young women. The groom is prominent in social and business circles here. After a Northern trip they will make their home in Ashland.

Monliche—Huger.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] ROANOKE, Va., August 3.—Miss Julia T. Huger, daughter of the late Colonel Frank Huger, and Tolleit Bache Monliche, an engineer on the Panama Canal, were married at St. John's Episcopal Church to-night, Rev. W. H. Mallon officiating. The marriage was a quiet affair, but brilliant from a social standpoint. They will visit the home of the groom in Norway and go thence to Panama.

Lynes—Wilson.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., August 3.—Jackson Lynes, of Henric county, and Miss Minnie Ellen Wilson, of Staunton, formerly of Harrisonburg, were married at the Presbyterian church in this city, Rev. George L. Petrie, D. D., officiating. Misses Mary and China Wilson, of Harrisonburg, sisters of the bride, were present at the ceremony. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Lynes left for Norfolk and other Eastern cities.

Burn Goes Up in Flames.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CULPEPER, Va., August 3.—The large and costly barn of Hamilton Smith, near Brandy Station, this county, was burned to the ground to-day and nearly all of its contents, consisting of wheat, hay and oats, were destroyed. The live stock was with difficulty gotten out of the burning building, but without injury. Mr. Smith had a short time before insured the building and its contents to some extent.

Hearing for Murder.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LYNCHBURG, Va., August 3.—A. S. Hamilton, who is charged with shooting Mrs. Sallie E. Hike here on June 11, causing her death Saturday, will be given a preliminary hearing in the Police Court Thursday morning on the charge of murder. Three or four eye-witnesses to the tragedy, as well as an ante-mortem statement of the deceased, will constitute most of the evidence for the prosecution, and the trial will be short.

Body Found in Water.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] ELIZABETH CITY, N. C., August 3.—The body of a middle-aged negro was found floating in the river near the Norfolk and Southern wharves this morning, and was towed in by a tug. The coroner viewed the body and decided death resulted from drowning. Pawn tickets from Norfolk in his pockets indicate that the man's name was Anthony.

THAW INSANE AND DANGEROUS, THREE ALIENISTS SAY

Testimony of Acting Superintendent of Matteawan Carries Much Weight—Prisoner Ruffled and Nervous.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., August 3.—Three of those medical men known as alienists, who have become such a familiar part of modern criminal court procedure, united in the Supreme Court to-day to make it unpleasant for Harry K. Thaw, who killed Stanford White and was adjudged insane, but who now demands his release from the Matteawan Asylum as a mentally normal person.

All three declared that the prisoner was still insane, and when Thaw took the stand after this disconcerting testimony, he was plainly ruffled and nervous. But Mr. Jerome dismissed him with a few comparatively unimportant questions.

Says He Is Dangerous.

Of the alienists who appeared—Dr. Austin Flint, Dr. William Hirsch and Dr. Amos T. Baker—the last named gave testimony of the most importance. He is acting superintendent of Matteawan, and appears as a witness without compensation, the only alienist in the case with this distinction. Justice Mills called attention to this fact and took a hand in questioning him. Dr. Baker said that in his opinion Thaw was not only insane now, but a dangerous person to be at large.

Shortly after this Mr. Jerome quickly called Thaw to the stand. He was pale and apparently shaken. The district attorney put in evidence some rather incoherent notes written by the prisoner, and asked him to explain them. After parries back and forth and laborious explanations by Thaw as to the meaning of certain writings, he said: "And I want you to know, Mr. Jerome, that many of these notes you call suggestions were written at the request of my lawyers."

"Do you mean to tell us, who observed you in both homicide trials," asked Mr. Jerome, "that you did not believe you knew more about the case than your lawyers did?"

"I do," was Thaw's quick reply. He admitted, however, that he did offer some suggestions to his lawyers.

Thaw was excused after a bit more of this ordeal, and Dr. Austin Flint was called. The physician described a paranoiac as a person who is dominated by certain delusions, and whose mental and physical states might not otherwise be affected, except as far as these delusions influence him.

"Paranoiac," he concluded impressively, "never recovers."

Hirsch Gets Rattled.

Dr. Hirsch varied the general verdict by declaring Thaw a "degenerate paranoiac."

Charles Morschauer, Thaw's attorney, attacked this testimony with every legal expediency. In Dr. Flint's case he endeavored to show that he had given contradictory testimony in two previous cases, where he appeared as an expert. He caused Dr. Hirsch some unhappy moments by inquiring about a book he is writing.

"Do you, in this book, claim that Jesus Christ was a paranoiac?" he asked. The witness replied that he would not like to give an opinion.

The alienists to-day delivered their opinions of Thaw in answer to Jerome's hypothetical question, only a small part of which was read. The State's alienists will probably occupy the centre of the stage for two days more. Mr. Morschauer will continue to-morrow his cross-examination of either Dr. Flint or Dr. Hirsch. Dr. Carlos F. MacDonald was yet to testify. He will be called by Mr. Jerome.
